FROM PRESIDENT'S SECRETARY

Widespread Movement.

Regarding What is Believed to Be

Havana, July 26.—The government is much alarmed over the insurrection at El Cancy, in the province of Santiago de Cuba. Atter a midnight council at the palace, troops were rushed today to the disaffected district. The insurgents are reported as rutreating to the hills, pursued by troops already in the province.

Believed to Be Serious.

The insurrection is believed to be of a serious character. Last night the government learned that General Minief and Colonel Jane, revolutionary weigrans, had taken to the moods at the head of about twenty followers.

Minief is a man of influence and it was feared that many milcontents.

The insurrection is believed to be of a serious character. Last night the government learned that General Miniet and Colonel Jane, revolutionary veterans, had taken to the woods at the head of about twenty followers. Miniet is a man of influence and it was feared that many malcontents would raily around him. would rally around him.

Infantry and Cavalry Go Forward. The council of war was hastily called at the pulsee and the situation was ed at the paince and the situation was thoroughly discussed. It was determined to rush troops to El Caney. Early this morning trains bearing 1,300 troops, both infantry and cavalry, left Campy Columbia under command of General Monteagudo of the rural guard. General Monteagudo had orders to reach El Caney in the shortest possible time.

Santiago Police Seize Arms. As strong military forces are aiready stationed in the province of Santiago, the despatch of additional troops thence indicated that the government considered the situation grave. The colice of Santiago have soized a quantity of arms at the headquarters of the Veterans' club, of which Colonel Jane is the president.

Cause of Trouble Not Known. The immediate cause of the revoit is not known here, but for several days runners have circulated through the province of Sauriago of impending trouble. The runners were at first declared by officery of the government to be without foundation.

The province the foregoes word was re-pursuit of the insurgents, who, as above stated, were said to be retreating through the difficult hill country.

Not Taken Seriously at Washington Washington July 16.—For some time the uprisin reports of threatened uprisings in Cuba country re have come to the state department, peaceably.

SPEAKER CANNON HAS ALWAYS BEEN A STANDPATTER

Ottawa, Kansss, July 26.—Congressman Victor Murdock, in a speech here tonight, said that Speaker Cannon had been a standpatter ever since he had heen in congress.

Mr. Murdock teld his hearers that his attention was first directed to the Cannon organization because of its power to finish its enemies.

"It was the case of Lilley of Connecticut." He said. "One day I was walking down street with Congressman Liller when he said. I wonder if the people will ever get onto this crowd."

"That was the first intimation that I had ever heard that anything was wrong in congress."

"I had hoped that I would not be wrong in congress.

That hoped that I would not be forced into this fight, but they brought Joseph G. Cannon to Kansas and Cannon attacked a cause that is near to my heart. He was brought here to abuse insurgents of the house, and I propose to tell the people of Kansas what the insurgents are ighting for.

This question is yours to settle. It is a question as to whether Kansas shall have representative government or whether it shall have a representative in congress that takes orders from Thoes of the late Senator Hanna and President Test were also applauded.' Prior to the opening of the convention the "regulars" had elected a majority of the resolutions committee, which will stand sponsor for the platform, and Congressman Longworth's reference to himself as a 'resworth's reference to himself as a 'reg ular' was piritedly cheered.

FIRST TRIAL OF STRENGTH IN FAVOR OF "REGULARS." Fight for Candidate for Governor to Be Settled Today.

Columbus, O., July 26.-The first trial of strength between the "regulars" and progressives" in the republican state convention here tonight resulted in avor of the "regulars" by a margin.

Congressman Howland of Cleveland, who has charge of the "progressive" platform, was defeated by Senator Dick for the chairmanship of the resolutions committee by a vote of 15 to 3. Immediately prior to this vote Mr. Howland announced that while he would not quibble over phraseology, if the platform were in substance unsatisfactory to the "progressives" he would bring in a minority report to the floor of the convention tomorrow.

Nine of Ohio's republican representatives in congress are members of the atives in congress are members of the resolution committee, and all supported the tariff Bill, which is one of the issues of the convention. As soon as the committee had gone into session word was sent to James R. Garfield, leader of the "progressives" here, that he would be heard.

Senator Burton Permanent Chairman. Senator Burton was tonight selected of the big Cuyahoga county (Cleve-land) delegation in the hands of Mau-rice Maschke, the vice chairman, a resident of Congressman Howland's district. The delegation, however, is split over the governorship, and the unit rule will not obtain as far as its 36 votes are concerned.

LAST SPEECH OF CRUISE Spoke from an Auto in Front of Rockland, Me., Library.

Portland, Me., July 26.—President Tait today put himself on record as subscribing absolutely to the princi-ple that a president of the United States should not talk politics. He tion, however, both in the resolutions committee and upon the floor of the convention. But while there were no votes to spare in the committee for county option and the other matters came before the main body of delegates as minority reports, the vote their favor in the convention was landed at Rockland at 11.15 this mornin their favor in the convention was senate to succeed Senator Hale, and is particularly interested in the cam-in which he had taken a fifty-minute tour of the city and its suburbs. There was a great throng in front of the library to hear him. He told of his appreciation of the welcome which had been accorded to his party and then "drifted" closer to a political utterance than at any other time during the trip. The harbor at Rockland, the big granite breakwater and the ships behind it, had brought ship subsidy to the president's mind.

"They suggest to me" he said "the

"They suggest to me," he said, "the mportance of our coastwise shipping. They also suggest the importance of improving our foreign shippings. All of which brings me so near to politics that I merely suggest it and leave it with you." The president paused for a moment, and then he apparently decided to take the demonstrative throng of listeners_into his confidence.

"You know," he said, reflectively, "its a little difficult when you are think-cruising this evening off this city. The president will not come ashore at Portland. He will spend tomorrow at Biddeford Pool, where Mrs. Taft's sister Mrs. More, has a summer place, and will be back in Beyerly Thursday afternoon at three ordoock.
